The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Financial Modernization Act requires financial institutions (including closing Settlement Agents) to protect the nonpublic personal information of consumers and customers who buy products and services for personal, family and household purposes. The Act requires that a copy of our Privacy Policy be given to clients.

Landry & Meilus, LLP Privacy Policy

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you, such as your name, address, telephone number, or social security number;
- Information about your transaction with us, our affiliates, or others. We receive this information from your financial institution, attorney, etc; and
- Information from public records

We do not disclose any nonpublic information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as permitted by law.

We restrict access to nonpublic information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide the products or services requested by you or your lender.

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with appropriate federal and state regulations.

We will maintain your file for seven (7) to ten (10) years in electronic and/or paper form.
